28 IN RE TEZOS SECURITIES LITIGATION

Master File No. 17-cv-06779-RS

CLASS ACTION

This document relates to:

ALL ACTIONS.

~~[PROPOSED]~~ STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: Hon. Richard Seeborg

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and that the Designating Party reasonably and in good faith believes fall within one or more of the following categories: (i) information or tangible things prohibited from disclosure by statute, rule, regulation, convention, code or law; (ii) information or tangible things that reveal trade secrets or other competitively sensitive information; (iii) confidential research and information of a technical, developmental, commercial, or financial nature (including but not limited to customer information); (iv) medical information concerning any individual; or (v) sensitive, non-public personal or customer information concerning individuals or entities, including but not limited to home telephone numbers and addresses.

2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

1 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it
2 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

3 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium
4 or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, 5 transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to 6 discovery in this matter.

7 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the 8 litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 9 consultant in this action, as well as the expert witness’s or consultant’s assistants, support staff, and 10 agents.

11 2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel
12 does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

13 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 14 entity not named as a Party to this action.

15 2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action
16 but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on behalf 17 of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

18 2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees,
19 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

20 2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material 21 in this action.

22 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., 23 photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, 24 or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

25 2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 26 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

27 2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 28 Producing Party.

1 3. SCOPE

2 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as 3 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all
4 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony,
5 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.
6 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following
7 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving 8 Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of 9 publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record
10 through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 11 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the 12 information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of 13 Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

14 4. DURATION

15 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 16 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order
17 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and 18 defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion
19 and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time
20 limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

21 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 23 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit
24 any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 25 Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral 26 or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or 27 communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of 28 this Order.

1 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to 2 be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber
3 or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other
4 parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

5 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 6 protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties
7 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

8
9 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, 10 e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or 11 Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before 12 the material is disclosed or produced.

13 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

14 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding 15 transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the 16 legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions 17 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the 18 protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

19 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need
20 not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would 21 like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made
22 available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified
23 the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents,
24 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified
25 documents, the Producing Party must affix the "CONFIDENTIAL" legend to each page that contains 26 Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 27 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 28 markings in the margins). To the extent that affixing a confidentiality legend to a document is

1 impracticable because of the format in which it is produced (for instance, in the case of native Excel
2 files), the Producing Party may use another method of designating the document “CONFIDENTIAL”
3 that is reasonably calculated to alert a Receiving Party as to its confidential nature.

4 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 5 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other
6 proceeding, all protected testimony. Alternatively, counsel for the witness may make a confidentiality
7 designation within 14 days of receiving a final transcript of the testimony by identifying those specific 8 portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought. Prior to the lapse of that 14-day period, the 9 entire transcript will be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” unless otherwise agreed by all Parties in 10 writing. After the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated, 11 either on the record or within the 14-day period following receipt of the final transcript.

12 Parties shall give the other parties notice if they reasonably expect a deposition,
13 hearing or other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can ensure that 14 only authorized individuals are present at those proceedings. The use of a document as an exhibit at 15 a deposition shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

16 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 17 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 18 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If 19 only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the 20 extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

22 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 23 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right
24 to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the 25 Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with 26 the provisions of this Order.
27
28

1 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2
3 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 4 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality
5 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens,
6 or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a 7 confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original 8 designation is disclosed.

9 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process
10 by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each 11 challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must 12 recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of 13 the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin 14 the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 15 sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must 16 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the 17 Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances,
18 and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A
19 Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this 20 meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the 21 meet and confer process in a timely manner.

22 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
23 intervention, the Challenging Party shall file and serve an administrative motion challenging a 24 confidentiality designation under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if 25 applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing
26 that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion 27 must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 28 meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. All parties shall continue to afford

1 the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's 2 designation until the court rules on the challenge.

3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party.
4 Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary
5 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions.

6 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 8 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
9 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 10 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been 11 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 12 DISPOSITION).

13 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 14 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

15 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by 16 the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 17 information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

18 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 19 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 20 information for this litigation;

21 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving 22 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

23 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 24 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to 25 Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

26 (d) the court and its personnel;

27 (e) court reporters and their staff, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is 28 reasonably necessary for this litigation;

1 (f) professional jury or trial consultants and mock jurors to whom disclosure is
2 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to
3 Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

4 (g) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 5 necessary;

6 (h) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 7 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

8 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
9 LITIGATION

10 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
11 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party 12 must:

13 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a 14 copy of the subpoena or court order;

15 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in 16 the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 17 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 18 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 19 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

21 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or 22 court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before
23 a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained 24 the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of 25 seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be 26 construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive 27 from another court.
28

1 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
2 LITIGATION

3 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in 4 this action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information produced by Non-Parties in 5 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order.
6 Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional 7 protections.

8 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a 9 Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with 10 the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

11 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some 12 or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

13 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective 14 Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the 15 information requested; and

16 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.
17

18 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14
19 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 20 Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely 21 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 22 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by 23 the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 24 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

25 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected
27 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order,
28 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

11.1 Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(b), (d) and (e), the inadvertent production of information that is privileged or otherwise protected will not operate as a waiver of privilege or work-product protection in this proceeding or in any other federal or state proceeding. When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review.

11.2 To the extent that a Receiving Party believes that a Producing Party has inadvertently produced material that is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Producing Party of that fact, including without limitation the specific documents believed to contain such material.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected

1 Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal
2 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant
3 to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected
4 Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under 5 the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local 6 Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public
7 record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

8 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

9 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each
10 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
11 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 12 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the 13 Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to 14 the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day
15 deadline that it has complied with this Section. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled 16 to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts,
17 legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product,
18 and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such 19 archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as 20 set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).
